

Publication opportunities for the EBES conferences

There are publication opportunities for papers presented at the Eurasia Business and Economics Society (EBES) Conferences in 2010. Qualified papers from economics and finance areas will be published in the special issue of the journal of Emerging Markets Finance and Trade (EMFT). EMFT is indexed in the Social Science Citation Index. This opportunity is available for each conference in 2010.

In addition, qualified papers from business economics, management, and business areas will be published in the special issue of the Journal of Business Economics and Management (JBEM). JBEM is also indexed in the Social Science Citation Index. Currently, this opportunity is available only for the Istanbul Conference.
